2007 Illinois Youth Summit

What is the Youth Summit?

Now in its thirteenth year, the Illinois Youth Summit is an extended program designed to promote awareness, investigation and action by high school students on current policy issues affecting youth. Over 1,300 students participate statewide each year.

Additional Summit program information is available at:
<http://www.crfc.org/summit2007.html>.

Teachers of Law, U.S. Government, American Problems, Humanities, or U.S. History are encouraged to apply.
